KPM Makes Boston's Largest Accounting Firm List...

(April 15, 2009 – Braintree, MA) KPM is pleased to announce that it was just named one of Massachusetts' largest accounting firms according to the annual ranking by the Boston Business Journal.

"Our inclusion in the list is significant for a number of reasons," says Kevin P. Martin, Sr., KPM's Founding Director. "First, it signifies our continuous commitment to client service. Many of our clients are relationships that the firm has had for close to 40 years. Second, it signifies our continuous commitment to our boutique practice groups."

The firm was the only firm on the list that listed real estate syndication and development, low-income housing tax credits, not-for-profit and television and film as industry specialties. "We're the largest firm headquartered in Massachusetts specializing in these industries and we are very proud of that. We've positioned our practice very carefully," Martin says. "Building infrastructure around our collaborative core competencies has enabled us to build a significant presence in our boutique industries."

"We approach each engagement from a business perspective," says Karen Kent, a KPM Principal. "Other firms focus on historical results. Our professionals are trained to look beyond the numbers to seek out industry trends and opportunities. We work very hard at the Business Ideas at Work approach to client relationships."

KPM is a member of KPM Financial Group which also includes KPM Financial Services, LLC, a strategic financial planning company and a member of BKR International, a leading global association of independent accounting firms with over 300 offices in over 70 countries.

"Our historical success has been achieved through the collective dedication to superior client service, integrity and stability," Martin reiterates. "We bring these fundamental business principles to everything that we do."
