FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Kevin P. Martin & Associates to Acquire VIPER Consulting, Inc.KPM VIPER Consulting to Provide Single Source for Financial and Technology Consulting

Braintree Massachusetts - Kevin P. Martin & Associates (“KPM”), a top accounting firm in New England, is pleased to announce that it has recently acquired VIPER Consulting, Inc. a Boston-based Information Technology consulting firm.

The strategic acquisition of VIPER Consulting, Inc. by KPM will bring a host of technology consulting services to KPM, which will complement its existing business advisory services base. Service lines that will now be offered include Sarbanes Oxley 404 readiness compliance, Disaster Recovery, SAS70 Type I and Type II, ERP implementation assistance and Massachusetts Privacy Compliance.

“In this day and age it is imperative as a trusted business advisor to not only be able to provide sound financial advice but also to recognize the continuing growth and reliance on technology in business.”, said Chad Robinson, a KPM partner. “As such we believe this move is in keeping with our corporate culture of entrepreneurialism and will allow us to provide our clients with a single point of contact for all their business needs.”

Lindsay Timcke of VIPER Consulting, Inc. will be joining the KPM team as Executive Director of the newly formed, wholly-owned subsidiary, KPM VIPER Consulting, LLC.

Timcke brings over 20 years of experience in IT and consulting to KPM VIPER Consulting, LLC. Timcke has worked in varied sectors within the industry, with specific expertise in Insurance, Life Sciences, High Tech and Software.
